What Shall We Name The Baby?

Board of education members, last night, were concerned with matters similar to those that face families. These were:

Are we buying the best furniture for the price? What shall we do with the money from the sale of the old house? Are our children safe walking to school? What are they learning in school? And what, oh what, shall we call the new baby?

Trustees decided that the best bargains in furnishings for the large group teaching facility at Carmel High School were received from American Seating Company; C. Patchett and Company; A-V Electronics Company; Coast Visual Company; Photo & Sound Company; and Pacific Film Library.

For $6,656.68, the board will receive 36 stacking chairs, 160 swivel tablet armchairs, eight tables, eight table top lecterns, one electrically operated projection screen, four tape recorders, one transcription player, three projection tables, one filmstrip and slide projector and two 16 millimeter projectors.

Whether or not to use some of the $550,000 received from the sale of Sunset School for building changes at the high school and intermediate school (present Carmel Junior High) which would improve the premises for learning and instructional purposes received considerable discussion.

Major General James H. Phillips (USA ret.), a member of the audience, took exception to such use of the Sunset sale proceeds.

He objected to any "frittering" of the Sunset money on minor improvements which might result in insufficient funds for new school construction when needed. He was informed that the Sunset money had been earmarked by the board for "capital improvements only."

Considering the latter allocation.

Noted Educators To Lecture in Carmel

The Carmel Unified School District is presenting a series of lectures titled "Adventures in Education," during which outstanding educators will discuss modern education. Any interested person is invited to hear the talks which will be presented in Sunset School auditorium at 8 p.m.

First speaker, on January 21, will be Dr. Charles R. Keller. His subject will be "Educational Catalyst."

On February 18, Dr. Abraham S. Fischler will talk about "A Modern Science Program in Grades Kindergarten Through Twelve."

Dr. B. Frank Brown, on March 18, will speak on "The Non-Graded High School."

Medill Bair, superintendent of the Carmel Unified School District, will close the series on April 22. He will discuss "Team Teaching."

Dr. Keller, the first speaker, taught at Yale-in-China at Changsha, China, during 1923-37 and at Williams College from 1929-58. During 1955-57, he was director of the College Board's Advanced Placement Program. Since 1958, he has been director of the John Hay Fellows Program.

He barnstorms the country speaking up for education and calls for non-graded schools, team teaching, flexible scheduling and revision of subject matter.

Editor's Column

Carmel citizens are justly famous for battles fought and won to preserve the natural beauty of the city. However, they are not noted for similar motivation towards saving the beauty of municipal buildings because, apart from the library, the city owns no facilities with any beauty worth saving.

The city hall is an old, wooden former church. Part of this venerable structure has been considerably rehabilitated to provide somewhat efficient offices for the city's administrative staff, except the building inspector. City hall no longer has room for this official's office and he occupies rented quarters elsewhere.

The city council meets in what was once the body of the church. The council chambers are unpainted with exposed electrical wiring and a high, peaked and creaky roof. There is little ventilation and the heating system is deplorable. On the walls are paintings comprising the city's memorial museum. These pictures are the only furnishings worthy of preservation.

Then there's the police station. This square block of a building was constructed of concrete bricks years ago as a temporary facility. It is now timeworn. An ancient gas heater, with a pan of water on top, is the main heating and air conditioning unit. There are no custody quarters, insufficient room for record cabinets; many more inadequacies.

Street department headquarters are old and mostly open sheds crowded behind the police station. Galvanized iron has been a building material much favored to construct this department's facilities.

The fire house is also aged. However, new, bright red metal doors have improved this municipal building. Its appearance is not offensive but considerable deterioration in the structure is evident if it is closely examined. Repairs will be necessary every year.

The library, an original Maybeck building, is still a credit to Carmel, but it is much too small to meet the needs of the community today.

And now the city has another facility—Sunset School. The plan is to convert this outmoded educational facility into a cultural and community center. If existing buildings are used for this purpose, repairs will be costly, especially to the auditorium. And what most probably will be the result of such preservation? Just another inadequate municipal facility without beauty?

The above antiquated, or inadequate, or ugly buildings house the governmental, public service and some of the cultural activities of this city famous for its natural beauty—a beauty which citizens strive to preserve and have be-

Junior Girl Scouts Holly Irwin and Debbie Berry from Troop 2009 and Cadette Scout Karen Austin from Troop 2158 are seen above planting a pine tree on Junipero Street. The tree is one of many raised from seedlings by William Askew, superintendent of the Carmel Street Department, and his crew who are helping the girls in this service project. All Carmel Girl Scouts are participating, and they hope to complete their job this week, weather permitting.

Pros Play Pebble Beach Monday To Qualify For 24th Crosby Tournament

What's new with the Crosby Clambake?

Not much. The purse has been boosted up to $84,500. And play at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club has been switched over to the new Shore Course. There's a new defending champion, naturally, Champagne Tony Lema.

All the celebrities will be back again this year including Phil

Harris, Ray Bolger, Bob Crosby, Dean Martin, George Gobel, Tennessee Ernie Ford, Fred McMur-ray, Ray Milland, Buddy Rogers, and many other stars of stage and screen and the sports world. And all the world's great professionals.

But by and large it's the same old National Pro-Amateur Golf Championship, sponsored by Bing Crosby, that has proven to be the most popular tournament in the world over the past 23 years, and raised well over a million dollars for charity.

The 24th edition will be played January 21, 22, 23 and 24. It will be televised coast to coast January 23 and 24 over the NBC network, sponsored by the 3-M Company.

The $84,500 will be divided into $50,000 for the 40 top professionals, $30,000 for the 30 top pro-amateur teams, and a $4,500 daily double for the first three days, with low pro in the pro-am getting $1,000 each day, and the runner up $500. Ties split.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday the field of 174 pros and 174 amateurs will rotate over Pebble Beach, Cypress Point and the new Monterey Peninsula Country Club Shore Course.

On Sunday the low 40 teams, plus ties and pros in the money play it off at Pebble Beach for the last 18 holes of the 72 hole tournament.

Tony Lema won in 1964 with 284, and aided and abetted by the great golf played by his amateur partner, Father John Durkin, placed second in the pro-am. Winners in the best-ball section were Mike Fetchick and Charles Seaver with 258.

Now comes the time we twist the lists to beat the annual income tax. Colossal contributions start the list of lies served a la carte. If all the charities received just half of what we'd like believed, old Parson Jones would be surprised to hear about how much we tithe.

The medicines and drugs and such—I never knew we used so much—our drug deductions greatly grew—we must have been a sickly crew!

We suddenly remember trips we took on business—trains and ships and car expense, and hotel meals—we're seldom home, the chart reveals.

As fast as Uncle Sam can change Ten Forty forms we soon arrange new ways to cheat by stealthy trick, and hope to God we make it tight.

Byron Janis To Play Here Sunday

Byron Janis, recognized as one of the finest pianists in the world today, will be presented by the Carmel Music Society in Sunset School auditorium on Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The American artist's appearance here will be one of 50 he will make during his annual U.S.-Canadian tour, which includes performances with 14 major orchestras. Last summer Janis played extensively in the major European festivals and capitals.

Since his appearance at the Brussels World Fair in 1958 and subsequent widely-heralded tours of the Soviet Union in 1960 and in 1962, Janis has become a prime favorite with Western European audiences. So busy has spring, summer and fall become that he and his family make their headquarters six months of the year in a house on the French Riviera.

His program in Carmel will include Sonata in E flat major, Joseph Haydn; Andantino di Clara Wieck (quasi variazione), Robert Schumann; Sonata in B flat minor, Opus 35, Frederic Chopin; Sonatine, Maurice Ravel; and Fifteen Visions fugitives—Toccata, Opus 11, Sergei Prokofiev.

Annual Orchid Show

"Orchids d'Elegance," fourth annual Monterey Orchid Show, will be held at the fairgrounds February 18 through 21, according to A. W. Bergquist, show chairman. Sponsored by the Carmel Orchid Society, a non-profit organization, this event will be held concurrently with the 11th Western Orchid Congress.

Entries for the gala display will feature many new and outstanding orchids in the novice, amateur, and private grower categories. Special sections for orchid arrangements and corsages will be an added attraction for show-goers this year.

Over 2,000 invitations have been mailed to members of the Western Orchid Congress, which includes the western states and Hawaii. Entries will be accepted from non-members as well.

Further information about the show may be obtained from Mr. Bergquist, 1179 Roosevelt Street, Monterey. There is no entry fee.

Nina Swan To Play Helen Keller Role At Circle Theatre

William Gibson's challenging drama, "The Miracle Worker," opens tomorrow evening at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre. Named for the key roles of Annie Sullivan, the stubborn, near-blind Irish governess, and Helen Keller, her totally blind and deaf, savage and untutored pupil, are, respectively, Rosamond Goodrich and Nina Swan.

Miss Goodrich, last seen as Ariel in "The Tempest" on the Circle stage, has been leading lady at most of the local theatres for many years. Nina Swan, of Carmel Valley, is a student at Carmel Junior High School and has been seen at the First Theatre as well as in school productions.

Duke Everts and Layne Littlepage, frequent actors at the Circle, will play Helen Keller's parents. Keith Decker is cast as her half-brother. Florence Larsen, Sarah Ector and Reed Putnam have supporting roles.

The many children who take part in the action include Robert Savere, Mary Smith, Lynn Hirschkind, Sandi Didricksen, and Dawn Glynn and Regan Beck-Meyer.

Marge Hirschkind is costumer for the period production. Rick Beck-Meyer lends his considerable artistic talents as scene designer. Reed Putnam has revamped the Circle's lighting facilities for this especially complex production, and Charles Richmond will supply elaborate sound effects. Carleen Everts is in charge of properties for a play in which they are uniquely important, the sense of touch being Helen Keller's only contact with the outside world. Nick Zanides has directed.

"The Miracle Worker" will play on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings through February 28.

Democratic Club To Elect New Officers

Three Carmel area residents are on the slate of officers proposed for election by members of the Monterey Peninsula Democratic Club at a meeting in the Fiesta Room of the Casa Munras on January 21. Colonel Pat O'Malley of Mission Fields has been recommended by the club's nominating committee for the 1965 president; Don Criley of Carmel Meadows, first vice president; and Leonard Cohen of South Carmel Hills, treasurer. Vic Knight and Jack Moore, both of Monterey, have been recommended, respectively, as second vice president and secretary.

A study of redistricting will precede the election of officers. Don Smith, city attorney of Del Rey Oaks, will discuss "Problems of Redistricting." Mr. Smith successfully prosecuted the suit to force the board of supervisors to realign supervisorial districts in Monterey County on an equitable population basis.

School Trustees To Be Elected In April

The terms of two members of the board of education of the Carmel Unified School District—Dr. Robert E. Newton and Clayton B. Neill Jr.—will expire this year.

An election to fill the vacancies will be held on April 20. The last day for candidates or sponsors to file nomination declarations is March 5. These declarations must be filed in the office of the county superintendent of schools in Salinas.

The last day to register to vote in the April election is February 25. Absentee ballots may be obtained from the office of the county superintendent of schools before April 13. These ballots must be returned to the same office by April 19.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

The age-old question of "What is Truth?" is given a fresh exploration in Christian Science churches this Sunday. The Bible Lesson is on "Truth," and the Golden Text is from Psalm (86:11): "Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth."

One insight into the question is presented in a paragraph from the opening pages of the Christian Science textbook: "The time for thinkers has come. Truth, independent of doctrines and time-honored systems, knocks at the portal of humanity. Contentment with the past and the cold conventionality of materialism are crumbling away. Ignorance of God is no longer the stepping-stone to faith. The only guarantee of obedience is a right apprehension of Him whom to know aright is Life eternal" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy).

County Symphony Will Present 11th Annual Youth Concerts At Sunset Auditorium Saturday

Saturday morning busloads of children will arrive at Sunset auditorium for the 11th annual free youth concerts presented by the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra directed by John Gosling.

The Junior League of the Monterey Peninsula sponsors these yearly performances. This year all Carmel, Carmel Valley, down-coast and Pacific Grove children of fourth through ninth grade age are invited to the concert at 10 a.m. Monterey children of the same ages will attend a repeat performance at 11:30 a.m.

Any child under eight years of age should be accompanied by an adult. Junior League members will serve as ushers at both concerts and maintain order in the auditorium.

The hour-long program will begin with "Grieg's Piano Concerto in A Minor" with Roger Tarbox of Carmel, winner of the Young Artists Auditions, as soloist. The Junior League also sponsors this competition for young musicians.

Next on the program will be Saint Saens' "Carnival of the Animals" with Wade Parks as piano soloist.

A world premiere of a youth concert composition by David Mulder, music director at Salinas High School, will be the third number. This piece will present the instruments and instrumental "families" of the orchestra.

The prelude to Wagner's "Die Meistersinger" will conclude the performance.

In the past ten years over 20,000 children have attended the youth concerts sponsored by the league.

Proud Hobbyist

Customers of the Carmel Drive-In Market have been intrigued by the ornate candy house displayed there, and Dick Vallaire of the Drive-In is justly proud of his intricate creation. Right now he's pretty excited, too—Kanda Kandies heard about it and a representative will be here today to take pictures of it, perhaps for national distribution. The house, reminding one of Hansel and Gretel, is made of hundreds of pieces of candy, of all shapes and colors. It required nine days to complete and with care will last about five years.

JANE VIAL JOINS PINE CONE STAFF

On Monday, Jane Hopper Vial joined the staff of this paper. She has taken over the duties of social editor.

Because of a serious eye condition, Carolyn Elstob has been told by her physician to have a month of complete rest. Janie is filling the vacancy created by her absence.

The late James Hopper, one of the first writers to live in Carmel, also the University of California's famed football player and coach, was Janie's father. Her mother, Mattie Hopper, undertook providing a park for Carmel—Devendorf Plaza.

Janie has spent most of her life here and is a youthful "old-timer."

Return Of A Native

Strictly speaking, Steve Patterson is not a native. However, he's the next thing to it and is vividly remembered by his friends as well as the devoted customers of the late lamented Chop House. Having forsaken Carmel for down-coast, Steve spent many years on his ranch there, tending to its needs and pursuing his painting. A bout of ill health brought about his decision in December to return to the comforts of Carmel, and he is now busy fixing up his house at Fifth and Mission. This done, he fully intends to pick up his brushes again.

His ranch holdings were sold to Jan Brewer of Los Angeles.

Crosby Houseguests

Miss Cassandra Guymon, whose new couturiere salon opened last month in the Farr building, is expecting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buschmann and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lacey of San Francisco as her houseguests during the Crosby Tournament. Both couples are frequent Peninsula visitors and have numerous friends here, particularly in golfing circles. Although Mrs. Buschmann and Mrs. Lacey are far from being "golf widows," their enthusiasm for the sport is no match for their husbands'.

Joy Fehring Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fehring announce the engagement of their daughter, Joy, to Gordon C. Roberts of Los Gatos.

Joy is the sister of Mrs. David Davini Jr., of Yuba City. Mrs. Jerry E. Berg of Zomba, Malawi, Africa, also, Julie and JoAnn Fehring, of Carmel both of whom are greatly excited by the prospect of being members of the wedding party.

Gordon is the son of Mrs. Herbert West of Los Gatos and Gordon C. Roberts of San Pablo. He has two sisters, Mrs. Robert Cook of Los Angeles and Miss Carole Roberts of Los Gatos.

Both Joy and Gordon attend the University of California at Davis, where the engagement was celebrated. After graduating this month, Gordon will enter law school in San Francisco in September. Joy, a Carmel High School graduate, is now in her senior year and will enter summer session at Dominican College in San Rafael for practice-teaching under the new teaching internship course.

The couple plan to be married in Carmel on August 21.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone

Stormy Birthday

Though they deny being prophetic, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hale, of San Jose Creek, had already picked the name of "Stormie" before her arrival during the violent storm of December 26. Alex Hale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Hale, of Canoga Park, were here to welcome the new baby. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Talmadge, maternal grandparents, are in France and had to content themselves with chewing fingernails while awaiting the news.

Stormie's brother, Brook, celebrated his second birthday on January 7 with what surely must be the dream of all small fry. For Christmas, Grandfather Hale had fashioned a miniature buckboard capable of being drawn by the family's enormous Saint Bernard, and Brook's birthday party guests were treated to rides in the "coach." The lucky children were Anna Williams, Peter and Martha Hudson, and Chris Hudson.

'Delinquency In Teen-agers'

The Carmel Junior High School Parent-Faculty Club will meet on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. in the school library to hear a panel discussion on "Delinquency in Teen-agers."

Members of the panel will be Clyde Klaumann, Carmel chief of police; Albert Giovanetti, chief probation officer for Monterey County; Dr. Robert Goulding, psychiatrist; and Dan Yurkovich, chairman of the juvenile justice commission of Monterey County, also principal of Carmel Junior High School.

Parents, teachers, and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Mystery Writer Visits Carmel

A writer of mystery novels, Dana Lyon, has been the houseguest of her girlhood friend, Mrs. Stuart S. Goode (Katherine Walter, formerly of San Jose) in her home on Hatton Road.

Dana Lyon, whose mysteries have been translated into several languages, sold in European markets, reprinted in paperbacks, and made into motion pictures, says that Carmel is the perfect spot for a writer in that one may live quietly in the seclusion of the woods by the sea and yet be among people of stimulating culture.

While in Carmel, Dana Lyon was entertained at dinner by another friend of school days, Mrs. Percy O'Connor (nee Doris Reed).

Woman's Club Book Review

On January 18 members of the Carmel Woman's Club will hear a review by Elizabeth (Mrs. Michael) Antoncich of "The Rector of Justin," by Phyllis Auchincloss. The program, which will begin at 2:00 p.m., has been arranged by Mrs. Stanley D. Wilson, book chairman.

Mrs. Antoncich, a resident of Carmel Valley, is the author of "Cliffhouse Mystery," whose setting is the Valley, and has begun a sequel with Monterey as its background. Her second book, "The Mystery of the Chinatown Pearls," has been chosen as a Junior Guild selection and will be published in March.

Mrs. William A. Sumner, hospitality chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Chester Pinkler, Mrs. Charles Kasch and Mrs. George Black. Serving at the tea table will be Mrs. Conrad Imelman, Mrs. Arthur T. Thorson, Mrs. E. M. Porter, and Miss Mable Stark.

Crosby Tournament Parties

At Cypress Point Club for the start of the Crosby Tournament next week will be Mr. and Mrs. Bing Crosby, Hillsborough; Mr. and Mrs. George L. Coleman Jr., Palm Beach, Florida; and Mr. and Mrs. William S. Boyd Jr., Hillsborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Osborne will have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Davis whom they will honor at a cocktail party on Saturday night. The Osbornes will also be co-hosts with Mr. and Mrs. S.F.B. Morse at an open house at the President's House at Del Monte Lodge on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aime G. "Tim" Michaud are expecting Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burgess of San Francisco as guests during the tournament. The Michauds plan a cocktail party at their Pebble Beach home on Thursday evening.

Among others entertaining are Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Madison of San Francisco who, with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery, will be down to occupy their Carmel home; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Work, who will be hosts on Saturday night for their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bolger and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Martin.

For contestants and guests there will be dinner dancing at the Beach Club on Friday and Saturday nights, and dinner dancing on Saturday night at Del Monte Lodge.

Local entries in the tournament include Frank Albert, Shreve M. Archer Jr., Wheeler Farish Jr., Richard L. Snideman and Thomas A. Work Jr., all of Pebble Beach.

Lois Renk Is Speaker

Mrs. Lois Renk discussed "The Intrinsic Values in Commercial Real Estate" at the one-day meeting of the American Mutual Listing Service in San Francisco on January 7. Members from 11 western states attended the session of the association of commercial property brokers.

Town House Programs

The interesting life of author "Collette" will be the topic of Mrs. Norman Fenton's talk on Sunday from 2:00-4:00 p.m. at Carmel Foundation Town House.

On Wednesday at 3:00 p.m., the Fort Ord Soldiers Chorus will present a program of songs.

Guests are welcome, and tea will be served after both programs.

Every Saturday night... outstanding cuisine from 7 to 10 p.m., gay music from 7 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. For reservations, telephone MA 4-3811. Gate fee refunded with all meals in dining room.

Officers' Wives Event

The Ball Room of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School will be the setting on the evening of January 21 for "International Night" which will be presented by the International Wives of the postgraduate school. The event will include exotic foods, entertainment, and a display of native costumes.

To Attend Convention

Carmel dentists who will attend the 69th annual meeting of the University of California Dental Alumni Association, to be held in San Francisco beginning January 17, are Dr. Dickson Bell, Dr. R. M. McArthur and Dr. W. H. Trimble. In addition to hearing of new concepts in practice and developments in research, they will attend a Sunday luncheon program for the dedication of the new postgraduate dental center there.

Mike Proctor Here

Seaman Recruit Michael S. Proctor, USN, enjoyed three and a half weeks at home following completion of basic training in San Diego. Michael, son of Mrs. Barbara Proctor and a graduate of the class of '64 at Carmel High School, left last week to report for duty in Florida.

A New Year's party for his old friends was a highlight of his visit, but his oldest sister, Julie Shephard, reports that there was a constant round of social activities for him.

Mello Children Get Wish

The five children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mello hoped their mother would bring home a baby boy this time, just to even the score in the family, and they got their wish. Brian Mathew is the name of the new addition who was born at Community Hospital on December 29, 1964.

The Mellors' other children are Joseph, eight and a half; Jennifer, six; Sharon, four; Theresa, three and one-half; and Paul, two. Brian's maternal grandmother is Mrs. Lucy Patterson of Seaside and his maternal grandfather, Mr. Earl Patterson of Marina. Mrs. Bill Azavedo of Pacific Grove is his paternal grandmother.

Tales Of The Orient

Mrs. Jean O'Brien Geisen was in town last week for a brief visit and regaled her friends with amusing and not-so-amusing tales of her recent trip to the South Pacific and the Orient. She left San Francisco by ship in November. Her itinerary included Tahiti, Bora Bora, New Zealand, Australia, Singapore and Hong Kong, from which point she flew to Japan and, after a week there, on to San Francisco. Jean was enchanted with New Zealand and Japan but found that in China the nearness of the Red Chinese rather dampened her zeal for exploring.

Jean's reason for flying home was the imminent birth of her daughter Tony's (Mrs. Robert Haire of Los Gatos) second child. The baby, named for his father, arrived as a pre-Christmas present for his young sister, Cameron.

Twelfth Night Party

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Mearns gave their traditional Twelfth Night party on, naturally, the twelfth night following Christmas. After the guests had had a chance to chat, each person trimmed a branch off the old-fashioned Christmas tree, decorated only with cranberries, popcorn and tinsel, made a wish, and tossed the branch into the fireplace. The significance of this act is the warding off of evil spirits, according to old pagan custom.

Lambswool Punch (brown ale and white wine, masterfully blended with spices) was served with the authentic Twelfth Night cake, into which had been put a pea and a bean, the finder of the pea being designated "Queen," and that of the bean, "King." Queen Enid Cocker and King James Mearns were then entitled to issue whatever edict they chose. Their request was that two guests act out "James Bond in Poland," and the ensuing skit brought the party to an hilarious climax.

Guests who enjoyed the Mearns' hospitality were Mrs. Mearns' sister, Mrs. Prescott Thompson, and her husband, who were visiting from Topeka, Kansas; Colonel and Mrs. William Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. John Cocker, Mr. and Mrs. Derek Lawford, Mrs. Allison Frank, Mrs. Shirley Walker, and Mrs. Marcia Hovick.

York School Honored

The York School, Monterey Peninsula's Episcopal college preparatory school, located on the Laguna Seca Ranch property, was honored this week when four of its 11 senior students were notified that they had passed the highly competitive NROTC scholarship examination. Should these four students progress through all stages of the qualification, they will be awarded scholarships valued by the U.S. Navy at approximately $8,000 a piece. According to Dr. Emod L. Brunner, headmaster at the York School, two of the four students were members of the first student body as seventh graders. The other two boys are completing their third year with the school. All are members of the school's first graduating class.

The boys are Loren Bengston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bengston of Marina; Douglas B. Rodda, son of Dr. and Mrs. James M. Rodda of Mission Fields; Frederic D. Tower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Tower of Sausalito; and Larry Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Turner of Monterey.

Braille Project

Mrs. Edythe Dallas of Carmel will instruct volunteers who wish to learn Braille in order to transcribe texts and educational materials for blind children on the Peninsula. The two-hour, two-semester free course will be sponsored by the Monterey Public Schools' adult education department and be held in the Monterey USO on Tuesday afternoons from 1:30-3:30 o'clock. Registration, also a preliminary meeting of interested persons, is set for January 26, 1:30 p.m. in the USO.

Art News

The board of directors of the Carmel Art Association has sent out invitations for a cocktail-buffet party at the association's galleries on Saturday. Invitations are not transferable and must be presented at the door.

The art association's parties are notable events. Guests include all active and associate members of Carmel's oldest and only artist-owned sales gallery. Drawn together at these affairs, besides artists, are residents of long standing as well as newer members of the community who are interested in art.

John Cunningham was elected president of the Carmel Art Association at the annual meeting of the organization on Monday evening. Other officers for 1965 are Jay Hannah, first vice president; Kathryn Aurner, second vice president; Arch Garner, third vice president; Eugene Baker, treasurer; Edith Dinkin, recording secretary; and Barbara West, corresponding secretary.

New directors are Richard Lofton, Ellwood Graham, Charles Thomas, Jay Hannah, Betty Harrington, Edith Dinkin, Richard Rodriguez, Arch Garner, Cuth Walker and Reginald Machado. Holdover directors are Eugene Baker, Mrs. Douglas MacGregor (outgoing president), Barbara West, John Cunningham and Kathryn Aurner.

Mr. Cunningham, the new president, also is director of the Carmel Art Institute.

Holiday greetings arrived at the Pine Cone from Adrian Beach, an artist who lived here for some years and now makes his home in Woking, England. The front of his card is a delightful line drawing of a Portuguese boy playing a tune on a pipe. Mr. Beach has done considerable painting in Portugal during the past few years.

Drawings and casein paintings by Eugene Garson will be exhibited at the American Federation of Arts gallery on Saturday and continue on display until February 10. Mr. Garson, born in Siberia and raised in China, has lived in the United States since 1939. He received his master's degree in art at the University of California in Berkeley and since then has been painting in San Francisco. This is his first one-man show.

Gallery hours are Monday through Friday 11 a.m.-5 p.m. and Saturday 2-5 p.m. The public is invited.

An invitational preview of the Garson show will take place at the A.F.A. gallery tomorrow evening. Pirosky and champagne punch will be served from 6-9 o'clock.

A sculpture designed and executed by the West Coast artist, Irene Lagorio, in which she depicts the fauna and flora of the Monterey Peninsula in metals and brilliant enamels, was recently installed in the lobby of the Mark Thomas Inn.

Miss Lagorio, who maintained a studio in Oakland for a number of years, has found great inspiration in the local scene since establishing a residence-studio in Carmel three years ago. Evidence of this can be seen not only in her recently completed sculpture, but in a series of serigraphs completed at her Carmel studio.

Miss Lagorio, also noted for her lectures and workshops, makes use of brush, welding torch, and camera in her work. All steps involved in a commission, from the drawing board and model stage, to the completion and installation, are recorded on film. The resulting color slides serve as a permanent record for files and client, and supplement the talks she is called upon to present to service clubs, university groups, art and museum associations.

Some of the slides showing large scale murals and sculpture will be used by Miss Lagorio to illustrate a talk she will give to members and friends of the Wayfarers Guild, at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday.

The lecture is free and open to the public.

The annual dinner meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Chapter of the American Federation of Arts will be held Tuesday evening at The Warehouse on Cannery Row. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by a short meeting at which the new members of the board of trustees will be presented to the membership.

Music and informal entertainment will continue throughout the evening. Reservations are available at the A.F.A. gallery or by telephoning 624-2918.

The second annual Religious Art Show, sponsored by the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School's Catholic Chapel Guild, is on display and open to the public until January 17.

One of the purposes of the show in the school's Hermann Hall ballroom is to stimulate interest in both traditional and contemporary religious art and to display examples of work from local galleries and artists.

This attractively displayed show contains 230 exhibits ranging from primitive representational Mexican retablos to sophisticated abstract expressionism.

"Best in Show" award ($300)

was given to Louisa Jenkins for her "Crucifixion."

In the professional division, Marlinde von Ruhs was awarded first prize ($100) for her "Adoration In The Stable." Second prize ($50) went to "Madonna and Child" by Alfred Heubach.

Erica Barton took first prize ($100) in the professional arts and crafts division with "Crucifix." J. H. Koslan Schwartz won second prize ($50) for "The Benediction." Honorable mention was given to "Patrick Cassidy's "Glory."

In the amateur fine arts division, Anna Katz placed first with "Church Of The Kazan Virgin." Elizabeth Kolb was awarded second place honors for "Jephthah's Daughter Coming To Sacrifice." Fannie Moo won an honorable mention for "No Room At The Inn."

In the amateur arts and crafts division, first prize was given to "The Children of Israel" created by Denise Boas, Susan Feldman, Babette Klein, Susan Lichtman, Anne Raphael, Terry Sladnick and Carol Weinhaus.

Judges were Joseph Danysh, Irene Alexander and Harry Ford.

The second religious art show sponsored by the Catholic Chapel Guild is one of the most comprehensive and interesting exhibitions of local artists' work that has been seen on the Peninsula in many years. The show is further (Continued on Page Nine)

The Sur Coast

By ELIZABETH FULLER JONES

WHALES ARE GOING SOUTH

It is that time of year again—the whales are going south, a little later in the season than in past years, but nevertheless they are on the move. The unmistakable billowy, white puffs are now delighting observers along the Sur Coast.

The beauty, wonder and excitement of their annual movement has been recorded most appealingly by an outstanding, contemporary poet, Big Sur's own Eric Barker. "Looking For Water," recently published, is a collection of poems by Mr. Barker, and included in this volume is "Whales Going South," a work which reflects the poet's keen observation and sense of beauty. "Looking For Water" is arranged in three groups: the first, selected poems from an earlier work "Directions In The Sun"; the second, favorites from a previous book "Ring of Willows"; and the third "New Poems," writings which have not before appeared in book form. Over the years many of the individual poems of this much heralded poet, have been published in the Atlantic Monthly, Harper's, Saturday Review, Yale Review, The Nation, The New York Times and others.

Eric Barker lives, is enveloped in the dramatic beauty of the Big Sur country and writes, superbly and simply, of such things as "clouds," a "rock pool," a "green wave," a "jade pebble," a dog, a girl on the beach, a piece of driftwood, "trees," the fog horn, his fellow poet Robinson Jeffers and "Whales Going South."

Two years ago this month, "A Ring of Willows," which included the poems, "Whales Going South," won for Eric Barker the coveted Shelly Memorial Award bestowed by the Poetry Society of America. For the enjoyment of our readers we give you:

"WHALES GOING SOUTH"
(Seen From The Big Sur Coast)
"Like hilltops turning in a cooler green
As if all earthly springs had lacked the rain
To make up for one always submarine,
Wet bash of flukes, drenched echo in the brain,

"For one half-wheel of shoulder half immersed"

Not growing flowers now nor any weed
But remnants of Sargassos when they burst
On matted sea-lines curving as they feed.

"Humping those arcs, to follow and to flail
Out-memories of dry seasons when they stood
Anchored in hill-rows, victims of the failing waves' estrangement to their seas of blood;

"To loss of mile-down deeps and rimless tides
In tropic driftings cooled by their own showers,
Dreamed Tritonward when meadows of their sides
Lay earth-becalmed in seas of grass and flowers!

"And now relaunched to plow the hill-change deep,
Led by their bulls in endless moonward runs,
Cruising their seaworn cirque, awake, asleep,
Bulging horizons like a school of suns."

AUDUBON FIELD TRIP

An all-day field trip for members of the Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society is scheduled for January 23 at Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park. This, a bird-watchers trip, will be led by James Blee, conservation chairman of the local Audubon group.

HUMAN ECOLOGY

Beginning tomorrow evening, and concluding on Sunday, a seminar will be held at Redwood Lodge, Big Sur, conducted by Dr. S.P.R. Charter, ecologist and editor of the Journal of Human Ecology. Dr. Charter will present his views on what he calls "the survival of democracy under the impact of an ever-extending technology."

MRS. ROUNDS RETURNS

Longtime neighbors and friends were pleased to see Mrs. Gertrude Ida Rounds this past weekend at her former home in upper Palo Colorado Canyon. Presently Mrs. Rounds is living with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goetz in Salinas, but for over 50 years home for her was in Palo Colorado. As in so many past years, following winter storms, Mrs. Rounds was joyously "at work" helping to clear out and smooth the granite-surfaced road leading to the Rounds and Goetz properties.

HONOR DR. WILLIAMS

Dr. Jesse Feiring Williams of Carmel was honored last month at the meeting of the board of trustees of the Community Hospital. He was presented with a certificate of honorary membership in the hospital's medical staff by Dr. Bruce L. Meyer of Carmel, president of this staff.

Dr. Williams was elected to the hospital board in 1952. He served as president of the board from 1954 until he retired from the board in 1961.

Commonly believed to be the shortest art exhibits on record are those given monthly at the Studio Art Supplies in the Carmel Work Center Shops. A new one will be held tomorrow from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. It is open to all artists, and work may be in any medium. Prizes of merchandise will be awarded to winners.

From A
Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

The value of a library to its community cannot be measured by circulation figures. The past two weeks have been bedlam thrice confounded here, yet our circulation was not really high. It seemed that every college student home for vacation came ready to research something in the library and most of the local students were either beginning or finishing term papers. Reference questions came so fast we forgot to even keep account of them. And to top off the whole business, the staff was reduced by several illnesses. If you came in and were cut off a little shorter than usual, please forgive us! You knew not what WE were doing!

We have a short waiting list even now for THE FOUNDING FATHER: THE STORY OF JOSEPH P. KENNEDY, by Richard Whalen. The author is an editor of Fortune Magazine, and he has done painstaking research for this book, reconstructing the life of the colorful father of the Kennedy clan. He shows the drive for power which motivated the senior Kennedy and how this drive was brought to fruition through his sons rather than through his own efforts. Naturally enough, the book is illustrated with photographs.

In 1958, John F. Kennedy published the first edition of his book A NATION OF IMMIGRANTS. He was working on the revision of the book at the time of his assassination. Now it has been published, with an introduction by Robert Kennedy and many pages of photographic illustrations. His theme is that the present method of choosing immigrants is unfair, and should be revised. He makes a strong case, with clear arguments backed by plain facts.

This week we have three new biographies of royal persons, and once again the old nursery adage holds true, a cat may still look at a king. Are you ready, cats? NAPOLEON AND JOSEPHINE is what the subtitle says it is, the story of a marriage. History is handled with authenticity but the accent is upon the marriage. The book is divided into two sections. The first is called Napoleon in Love with Josephine. The second is Josephine in Love with Napoleon. The book is based upon memoirs and letters and is liberally footnoted without being pedantic.

THE TRAGEDY OF CHARLES II, IN THE YEARS 1630-1660, is perhaps a scholarly sounding title, and the book is a bit on the scholarly side, it must be admitted. It was written by Hester Chapman and is illustrated with reproductions of paintings, most of them portraits. It tells the story of the charming monarch who was tutored in treachery at an early age and who hoodwinked an entire nation during his reign.

Ian Grey has written two earlier biographies about Russian rulers, and his latest book is IVAN THE TERRIBLE. When Ivan was born in 1530 there were strange portents and signs in the heavens and on earth, and it was prophesied that he would be a great and powerful king, and so he proved to be, powerful and terrible. This is Russian history, and striding through it the figure of the Tsar, a man of such dreadful angers that he killed his own son in a fit of rage.

Leaving the battles, the rages, the intrigues and their noble actors, let us turn to a book by Joseph Wood-Krutch which he has called IF YOU DON'T MIND MY SAYING SO. The book is a collection of gentle essays about the world today, manners, morals, writers, and many another topic which a great humanist can choose to write about. Several of the pieces bear the same title as the book itself. This is good reading for a quiet winter's evening. You're welcome.

Colonel Black Joins Radio Liberty Staff

Colonel Arthur H. Black (USA ret.) has left Carmel to be assistant director of operations for the network division of Radio Liberty, a privately sponsored broadcasting organization which beams around-the-clock programs to the USSR in Russian and 16 other languages spoken in the Soviet Union.

Colonel Black has been appointed to head the administrative side of the network division that builds and maintains technical facilities and is staffed primarily by engineering personnel. His headquarters are Munich, Germany.

His wife, Marjorie, is still in Carmel, also the Blacks' children, Arthur Jr., a student at Monterey Peninsula College, and Marjorie Ann, who attends Carmel Junior High School. They plan to leave here to join Colonel Black at the end of next month.

Colonel Black brings to his new post many years of Army experience in administration and logistics. A graduate of top Army schools, he served as assistant chief of staff at Fort Ord; logistic inspector general for the 11 Western states; C.O. of the Adjutant General Administration Center in Japan; and as deputy adjutant general for the Far East Command.

Interviewed at Radio Liberty's New York offices before departure for Europe last Thursday, Colonel Black spoke regretfully of leaving Carmel.

"It isn't easy to settle in a new place without pulling up home-town roots, but that is what we will have to do. This won't be a short 'tour of duty' for us, but we hope to be coming back on home leave. In the meantime, I look forward with keen anticipation to the challenge of an active new career," he said.

Michael R. Hohler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Hohler of Carmel Valley has completed Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas and has been selected for technical training as an aircraft maintenance specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Amarillo AFB, Texas. He is a 1964 graduate of Carmel High School.

Illustrated Talk On Chile Open To Public

Father Edmundo Stockins, Chilean geographer, lecturer and photographer, will speak this evening at a meeting co-sponsored by the World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula and the Carmel Adult School in the music room at Carmel High School at 8 p.m. This meeting is open to all interested persons. There is no admission charge.

"Chile, Land of Beauty," is the title of Father Stockins' talk. He has traveled the length and breadth of the American continent to record on film the wonders of the region.

In 1958, he received the distinction of Artista Aphiph. This established him as one of the outstanding photographers in the world. He has lectured in every part of Latin America and many parts of Europe, and has been featured on the BBC, also national television networks of France. In the United States he has given illustrated lectures at the Brookings Institute, the National Defense Board, the Library of Congress, and Georgetown University. He is in the United States under the sponsorship of the Inter-American Development Bank.

ROTARY CLUB GIVES MONEY TO COBALT-CANCER FUND

The Carmel Rotary Club will donate $5,000 to the Community Hospital's Cobalt-Cancer Fund.

The gift, proposed by J. O. Handley, a member of the club and a trustee of the hospital, was unanimously approved by the membership. The money will be paid over the next 36 months.

The 75 members of the Carmel Rotary Club previously have donated $35,000 for the hospital's emergency unit.

Miss Blanchard Is M.P.V.S. President

Last week a Carmel resident, Miss Ruth Blanchard, became president of Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services at the first meeting of the organization in 1965. As head of a volunteer group which has, during 23 years of existence on the Monterey Peninsula, donated thousands of dollars to the assistance of local causes, Miss Blanchard will be assisted by other Carmelites. They are Mrs. Laurids Jorgenson, vice-president; Miss Irene Palmer, recording secretary; and Mrs. M. T. Thomas, corresponding secretary. Other 1965 officers are Miss Marion Eley, parliamentarian; Mrs. Howard D. Dabney, treasurer, and Mrs. Thurman H. Bane, membership committee chairman.

M.P.V.S. standing committee chairmen for 1965 are Mrs. Wendell M. Coates, finance; Mrs. Paul Glibe, nominating committee; Mrs. Howard Healey, office supplies; Mrs. R. W. Scheffler, publicity; and Mrs. Edward McMurtry, courtesy committee head.

Total membership—185 women—comes from every community on the Monterey Peninsula including Carmel Valley. It is the policy of Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services that assistance be distributed impartially over the same area. The Thrift Shop located at 785 Broadway, Seaside, is the core of this organization. Sales of merchandise at this store determine amounts of aid which can be distributed.

Mrs. Earl M. Oren of Pacific Grove is the new chairman of the Thrift Shop committee and it is her hope that many householders and shop owners will clean out their cupboards for the New Year and donate to the shop articles such as clothing (particularly children's clothing), household articles, art objects, furniture, or any other usable object no longer wanted by the owner.

M.P.V.S. provides pick-up service. This may be arranged by telephoning Mrs. Boyd Mewborn, merchandising committee chairman, at 394-5028. Additional information about the shop may be obtained at the same number.

ORDINANCE NO 110 C.S.

AN ORDINANCE EXTENDING THE FORESTRY COMMISSION OF THE CITY UNTIL DECEMBER 31, 1966

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 270 of the Municipal Code be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 270. The Forestry Commission of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea is hereby created, to continue until December 31, 1966."

Section 2. Effective Date and Statement of Urgency. This ordinance shall take effect as an urgency ordinance, to be effective on its final passage and adoption, a statement of its urgency being as follows:

That unless the ordinance becomes effective on its final passage and adoption, the Forestry Commission will be dissolved as of the 31st day of December 1964, prior to the time this ordinance would become effective in the normal course of events. That this automatic dissolution of the Forestry Commission would be detrimental to the public health, safety and welfare, and that the activities of the Forestry Commission necessary for the preservation of our urban forest, and associated matters, would be interrupted pending its reorganization, and the interruption of the services of this commission pending its reorganization would be detrimental to the public health, safety and welfare of the city.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea this 9th day of December, 1964.

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

I, HUGH BAYLESS, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 110 C.S., which was given its First Reading at a Regular Meeting of the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, held on the 9th day of December, 1964, and finally adopted at a Regular Meeting of said Council on the 9th day of December, 1964.

I further certify that upon its passage the foregoing Ordinance was signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Clerk thereof.

DATED this 11th day of January, 1965.

HUGH BAYLESS - City Clerk

Date of Publication: Jan. 14, 1965.

ORDINANCE NO. 111 C.S.

AN ORDINANCE CONTINUING INTERIM ZONING WITH RESPECT TO ON-SITE, OFF-STREET PARKING FOR CERTAIN USES

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN as follows:

Section 1. It is hereby determined that it is both desirable and necessary that the within ordinance be adopted in order to properly implement the existing portions of the Municipal Code and other ordinances dealing with zoning matters and to carry out the determinations and objectives of Part X of the Municipal Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, pending the adoption of precise zoning regulations presently being considered and studied by the Planning Commission and the City Council of this city relating to on-site, off-street parking requirements of all commercial uses within the city with the exception of multiple dwelling use.

Section 2. No new structure of the A to H, inclusive, occupancies, as such occupancies are defined in the Building Code, with the exception only of multiple dwellings, shall hereafter be erected, nor shall an existing structure of such occupancies be altered to provide greater interior floor space than existed in such existing structure on January 6, 1965, unless and until the Planning Commission shall have approved the provision for adequate off-street vehicle parking facilities within the building site of such structures, when and as required by the Planning Commission. In determining the adequacy of off-street parking facilities to be provided on such site, the Planning Commission shall base its requirements on (A) location of site, (B) size of site,

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENT

(C) topography of site, (D) existing density of permanent type construction in the immediate vicinity, both on and off the site, (E) width and classification of streets upon which site abuts, (F) zoning objectives of the zone wherein site is located, (G) the need and effect of on-site, off-street parking on the immediate neighborhood. The Planning Commission in this connection shall specify parking requirements, if any, for the site before any building permit involved shall issue.

Section 3. The Planning Commission may permit any off-street parking requirement under this ordinance to be satisfied by off-street, off-site parking in kind provided by the developer, located within the immediate shopping area of the site and not more than six hundred (600) feet from the site; provided there is no practical means of locating the required parking on the site due to existing development on the site, or the requirements of the zone within which the site is located. In order for such off-street, off-site parking to qualify as a proper substitute for off-street, on-site parking, the city must be provided with a covenant running with the land, binding the owner of the land where such parking is to be located to the city to make the required parking and access thereto available for parking so long as the improvement requiring such parking exists. The Planning Commission, upon application thereto, may from time to time permit substitution of off-site, off-street parking locations, provided such substituted locations comply with the provisions of this ordinance or other applicable municipal laws that may be then in effect.

Section 4. Any decision rendered under this section may be appealed to the City Council in the same manner as an appeal respecting an adjustment permit, as provided in Part X of the Municipal Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Section 5. This temporary zoning ordinance shall be of no further force and effect one (1) year from the date of its adoption unless extended as provided by law in such matters.

Section 6. It is the purpose of this ordinance to prohibit the establishment of uses without making provision for off-street parking which may be in conflict with permanent, precise zoning regulations being studied with respect to such off-street parking in connection with such uses. That in this connection, this ordinance be considered an amendment and extension of Ordinance No. 93 C.S. within the meaning of Section 65806 of the Government Code, and shall be deemed to supersede all of the provisions of said Ordinance No. 93 C.S.

Section 7. Statement of Urgency. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency ordinance and shall take effect immediately upon final passage and adoption. The statement of urgency is as follows:

That it is necessary to adopt this ordinance to protect the public safety, health and welfare within the meaning of Section 65806 of the Government Code, in that the city is making studies of permanent zoning regulations as hereinabove recited in Section 1; that the adoption of this ordinance as an urgency measure is necessary so as to prevent an influx of new construction which, if permitted, would to a large extent render the permanent zoning regulations ineffective and hamper the adoption of a final, precise zoning regulation dealing with this matter.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea this 6th day of January, 1965.

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

I, HUGH BAYLESS, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 111 C.S., which was given its First Reading at a Regular Meeting of the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, held on the 6th day of January, 1965, and finally adopted at a Regular Meeting of the said Council on the 6th day of January, 1965.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF FLORENCE S. HART, Deceased

No. 18711

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE

Notice is hereby given that on or after February 1, 1965, at ten (10) o'clock A.M. or thereafter within the time allowed by law the undersigned ERNEST BAZEL HART as Executor of the Will of the above named decedent, will sell at a private sale, to the highest bidder, subject to confirmation by the above entitled court, all the right, title, interest, and estate of the said decedent at the time of her death and all the right, title, and interest the said estate has, by operation of law or otherwise, acquired other than or in addition to that of said decedent at the time of her death, in and to that certain real property located in the County of Monterey, State of California, described as follows:

That certain real property situate in the County of Monterey, State of California, described as follows: Lot 1, in Block "Q" as shown on "Map of Addition Number One, to Carmel-by-the-Sea, Monterey County, Cal.", etc., filed November 6, 1905 in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Monterey, State of California, and now on file in said office in Map Book One, "Cities and Towns", at Page 45 1/2 therein.

The die is cast. Check paid, contracts signed, date set; no turning back now. As of July 1, 1965 Sunset School no longer exists. The contract requires the school staff to peaceably quit the premises. Peaceably, huh? Do you get the same lovely picture I get? Principal Orville Rogers and his fiercely loyal secretary, Isabelle Head, and all the faculty barricading themselves in and fending off Mayor Blanks' army with erasers, chalk and spitballs.

But I do know one staff member who would have left the premises peaceably last week. Willingly, in fact, eagerly, gratefully with all her heart. Ruth Kelly, Sunset's very capable, and popular librarian. Boy, if anybody had given her the chance during those miserable rainy recesses, she'd have run out of there like a streak.

Coming back from San Francisco last week I stopped at a Highway 101 restaurant and sat near some ladies from New York who'd obviously been everywhere. "What I liked best," said one, "was driving around where those gorgeous homes are and the Del Monte Lodge and the cypresses and all that. What scenery! I just love scenery—especially outdoor scenery."

"Oh, that," scoffed another. "That's 21 Mile Drive. And if you ask me it's highly over-rated, highly."

Only by 4 miles, lady.

Betty Barron is so excited. She and Gerry are going to Washington for the Inauguration. They are old friends of Humphrey's and look forward to a fascinating trip. Jerry said he hoped more Peninsula people would be joining them on the California Democratic Delegation chartered plane, especially people from Carmel.

From Carmel? There aren't any Democrats in Carmel, are there?

Last Thursday at the entrance to Carmel Valley a very interesting historical event took place. It was the second and final fire at the old Hatton Ranch milk house. It had to go because that famous freeway is no longer something that might happen someday but instead is about to start any day now. So soon, in fact, that the Division of Highways didn't have time to solicit bids for a demolition job. They turned it over to the Department of Forestry and let Head Forester Harry McAuley and his boys use it for a training exercise. And they filled it with said property and must be in writing and may be delivered to said Executor, or to the office of his attorney, HAROLD C. KRUSE, P.O. BOX 30, 126 Bonifacio Place, Monterey, California, or may be filed in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court at any time after the first publication of this notice and before the making of said sale.

Terms and conditions of sale: Cash in lawful money of the United States of America, 10% of the amount bid to accompany the offer and the balance to be paid on confirmation of sale by the court. Taxes and insurance premiums on insurable acceptable to the purchaser shall be prorated as of the date of confirmation of sale. The examination of title, recording of conveyance, and any title insurance policy shall be at the expense of the estate.

DATED: January 13, 1965.

old tires and paper, get a match to it and away she went.

The attractive little cottage burned the first time many years ago. Flip Hatton can't remember whether it was before he was born or when he was a little baby. His dad rebuilt it and it was an active and important part of the ranch until 1926 when the family went out of the milk business and into artichokes. After that it had about as varied an existence as a house can have.

Flip kept his jalopies in the yard for awhile. The State used it as a storehouse during the second World War. They were having a lot of trouble with squirrels those days, so they stored squirrel poison there. Then Sam Smith headquartered there while Carmel Rancho Shopping Center was under construction. Finally, its last tenant was our local radio station. Well, its last paying tenant, anyway. Flip says no telling how many different kinds of varmints and tramps and Huck-Finns have bunked there free of charge.

So, if you thought the smoke smelled funny you were right. It was a combination of cheese, rubber, cyanide and a little KRML corn.

Clara Gray

Word has been received of the death on January 2 of a former Carmel resident, Mrs. Clara Josephine Gray, in Campbell. She was the widow of Dr. John R. Gray, who practiced medicine in Carmel for many years.

Arthur D. Perry

Arthur D. Perry, 87, died last Thursday following an extended illness. He was the father of Thomas K. Perry and Isabelle Perry Boggess of Carmel and is also survived by two granddaughters and four great-grandchildren. Mr. Perry was a native of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Private funeral services were held at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea in Pacific Grove. Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Friends wishing to honor the memory of Mr. Perry may do so through contributions to the Community Hospital Building Fund, Box HH, Carmel.

Mrs. Firestone

Memorial services were held yesterday for Mrs. Polly Curtis Firestone in All Saints' Episcopal Church with the Reverend David Hill officiating. Mrs. Firestone, who died Sunday at her Beverly Hills home, was the wife of Leonard K. Firestone and the mother of A. Brooks Firestone of Pebble Beach; she also leaves another son, Kimball C. Firestone of Akron, Ohio, and a daughter, Mrs. Samuel C. Register of Paris, Kentucky.

Burial will take place in the Columbian Cemetery in Ohio.

Catherine Russell

Mrs. Catherine Russell, who was born in Prescott, Ontario, Canada, on May 22, 1886, died Friday in a local hospital following an extended illness. Mrs. Russell came to the Peninsula three years ago to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Jones of Pebble Beach. She is also survived by one granddaughter.

The Rev. C. E. Wilson, chaplain of Robert Louis Stevenson School, officiated at services in the Paul Funeral Chapel on Saturday. Burial took place in El Carmelo Cemetery.

ONLY ONE BLOCK TO THE POST OFFICE and 2 blocks to Ocean Avenue shopping—in fact, right in the MIDDLE of Carmel, is a home fresh on the market. It's an older but cozy home with 2 bedrooms and 2 nice baths. Pluses are: a connected storeroom (another bedroom and bath?), a dining area, a sundeck and enough yard for gardening if you wish. It's offered at $32,500 and the owner has already purchased so wants to sell.

A FAMILY-SIZE CONTEMPORARY

IN THE CARMEL HIGHLANDS

We have several fascinating contemporaries listed with us right now, but none will accommodate families, nor were they planned with juvenile as well as adult needs in mind. That's why we are so pleased to be able to offer a famous designer's home built just this year for four children and some pets as well as grown-ups.

The children's wing (separate from the master suite) has sleeping rooms, play room, and a studio—perfect for keeping an eye on the youngsters while you carry on your adult business and hobbies. So many charming and interesting features are built into the house that we hope you'll just come with us and LOOK if this sounds like something you and your family will enjoy.

Located in the woods of the Highlands, a really great place for the kids to grow up, with school bus nearby. The price is $59,500 and details will be happily provided to anyone delighted as we that someone has finally built a family-size contemporary!

What Shall We Name The Baby?

tion, Chairman Dr. Robert Newton asked Superintendent Medill Bair to present, at a future meeting, specific improvements at both schools that might fall within this classification.

Informed by San Luis Obispo district office of the State Division of Highways, in a letter, that a traffic survey had revealed no need for safety signals at the intersection of Highway One and Atherton Road, the board decided to carry the safety of children walking to school to higher authorities, also enlist the support of State Senator Fred Farr and Assemblyman Alan Pattee.

Considerable attention was given by the board to tentative programs of study in 1965-66 at Carmel High School and the junior high when it becomes a five through eight grade intermediate school in September.

The fact that art was not a required course in the high school curriculum was deplored by three trustees, Mrs. Herbert Blanks, Dr. Hilton Bialek and Steven Sassoon.

Chairman Newton was "strongly opposed to adding any more required courses." Superintendent Bair thought it better that this subject be taught as a desired rather than a required course. Final adoption of the courses in the two schools will come at a later meeting.

And then the board of education got round to naming the new baby.

Proposed at a former meeting was that the intermediate facility be named Hatton School after the family which formerly owned the school site at the entrance to Carmel Valley. Last night, Eben Whittlesey urged the school board to honor Carmel's famous poet, the late Robinson Jeffers, by giving the school his name.

Superintendent Bair suggested that present junior high and Sunset students be asked to submit names for the new school. This met with enthusiastic board approval. The board also decided that high school students should be asked to submit names for the large group teaching facility on their campus.

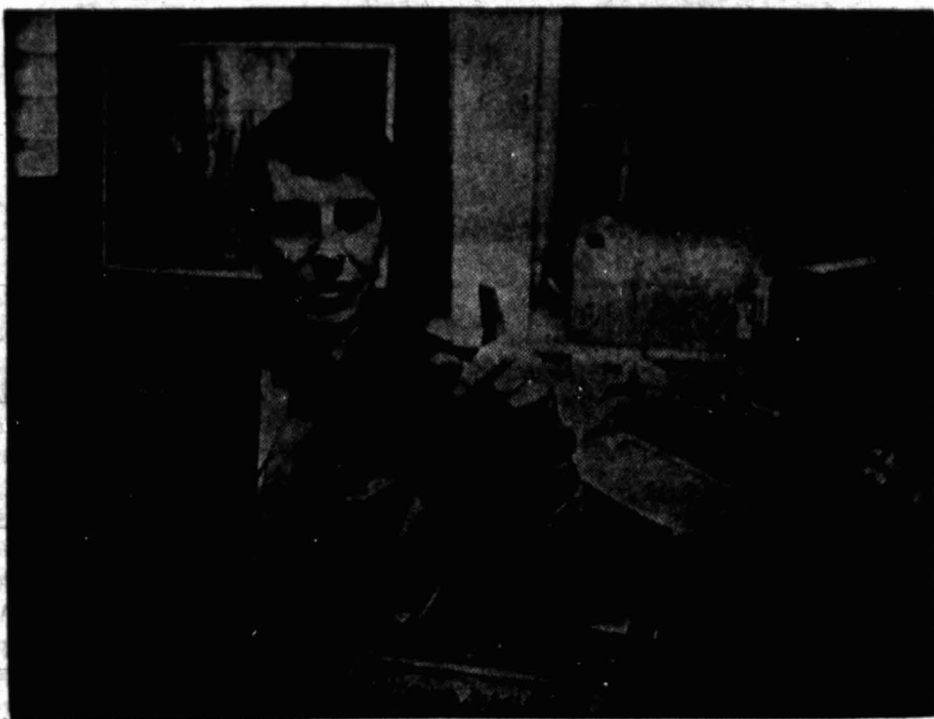

"It has been my experience," Mr. Bair stated, "that the finest names are developed by kids."

Meeting Monday On Juvenile Drinking

The problem of juvenile drinking and what to do about it will be discussed at a meeting on Monday in the Monterey County Courthouse in Salinas.

Thomson J. Hudson, chairman of the Monterey County Board of Supervisors, has called the meeting and sent out invitations to chiefs of police, superior, municipal and justice court judges, college presidents, youth center directors and civic leaders throughout the county, also student body presidents of each high school and college in the county.

"It is past time that we see what can be done to combat this problem," Mr. Hudson stated in

BY LLOYD JENKINS

Anthony Stone, of comparatively recent vintage with international flavor, will henceforth be associated with Danny Garcia's Carmel Art Center. The many friends and listeners who have long enjoyed Anthony's musical selections and programming at KRML radio during the past four and a half years will undoubtedly want to visit him at his newly created position as curator at the Carmel

Museum of Modern Art, a division of the Carmel Art Center, at Sixth and Dolores.

Mr. Stone was formerly an actor in all mediums of entertainment with a long and varied career, both in this country and abroad.

As an actor in the Combined Services Entertainments, he was assigned to the India-Ceylon area, traveling and performing for two and a half years after 1945. From this base of operation he was engaged as a free-lance radio announcer, combining his abilities as newscaster and disc-jockey for All-India Radio, New Delhi, whence he made sojourns into Tibet and Afghanistan.

Upon his return to England, the next six and a half years were crowded with appearances in London and provincial theatres, feature and documentary films, as well as assignments for B.B.C. and other networks on the continent, including Granada, Spain. As an actor and narrator for the B.B.C. he enacted somewhat over 200 roles.

Carmel Youth Heads MPC Student Body

Bob Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wells of Carmel, is the new student body president at Monterey Peninsula College, replacing Steve Shore, also of Carmel.

Bob was elected last Friday at MPC. He defeated Dennis Hermanson of Carmel Valley with 324 votes to 232. In the same election, John D. Smith of the Coast Route, with 336 votes to 204, defeated Dennis Johnson of Seaside for the office of ASMPCC vice president.

A 1963 graduate of Carmel High School, Bob Wells is a sophomore majoring in liberal arts at the college. He has held the office of president of the MPC Inter-Club Council during the fall semester.

STORY HOUR

To the delight of pre-schoolers, and presumably their mothers, the story hour will resume at the Magic Fishbone, Mission and Fifth streets, at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Any adults interested in a discussion group of literature for children are invited to call Mrs. Bruggeman of the Magic Fishbone at 624-4444.

What's Happening In Our Schools

At Woods School, Mrs. Powell's second graders are having an exciting experience writing their own songs under the guidance of John Farr each Monday morning. Mr. Farr brings a different instrument each time to explain to and play for the children, who are calling their songs "Adventures with Musical Instruments."

Fourth graders of the school have adopted the "Good Neighbor" policy in earnest and are corresponding with their peers in the Heroes de Baja School in Ensenada, Mexico. The exchange of letters resulted from sending to Mexican Consul General Adolfo Dominguez in San Francisco a birthday card in which the class expressed its good wishes to Mexico on the 150th anniversary of its independence from Spain. Letters received from Mexico are in Spanish, and the children's replies are translated by their teachers into Spanish before being sent.

Twenty teachers from Marina and the Office of the County Superintendent of Schools visited River School this week to observe the language-experience approach to the teaching of reading in the first and second grades. Principal Richard O'Connell reports that so widespread has become the interest in the method, now in its second year at River, the school is besieged by educators and parents wishing to see it at first hand. That the pupils respond well to learning by writing of their own experiences is being clearly demonstrated.

Mrs. Anna Kohner, Woods School principal, and Miss Jo Brazell, Sunset School teacher, will spend next week in Connecticut for the purpose of observing the schools in Greenwich and Norwalk. The school systems, particularly in Norwalk, are pioneers in many facets of learning processes. The two educators hope to absorb as much as possible of these schools' methods in use in team teaching, ungraded classes, and other ways of group learning for children.

The trip is made possible by Ford Foundation funds given the Carmel schools some months ago.

CUB SCOUTS REORGANIZE

Carmel's first Cub Scout Pack, Number Three, which is sponsored by the Carmel Lions Club, will hold a reorganization meeting at River School on Monday at 8 p.m. District Scout Executive Frisbee, committee chairman George Dear, and Cubmaster Ray Benson will conduct the meeting and appoint adult den leaders.

Pack Three meets in the evening on the last Friday of each month.
